Prophetic Words for the Rising Ekklesia

8 - 1 Breathing Upon the Embers

On three occasions heaven clearly showed, through prophetic dreams, that the breath of the Lord is going to play a big part during this next season. The impact of that breath is going to release something that will have the same impact as when God breathed upon that sand igniting Adam into that life being. It will be as powerful as when God breathed upon the valley of dry bones when raising up that army. That same powerful breath will now be released upon a gathering of people who have been tucked away for a time such as this. A life-giving breath that will set ablaze the embers of the scattered as He releases His last days movement. We have entered a season where God is calling the scattered embers to gather once again. He is about to reunite and reignite, and together these embers will release a glorious manifestation of Jesus Himself, — the likes of which we have not seen for awhile. Nothing in our present time frame can be compared to what is about to be released.

As Jesus spoke to Peter about an Ekklesia moment (that true revelation of a government that is totally backed by heaven, — as demonstrated in the early days), so will there be another Ekklesia demonstration, but much greater. This rock of revelation will once again rise to the forefront, — a powerful demonstration of God's breath set in motion for a time such as this, and we are about to get caught up in a powerful presence of Jesus Himself once again!

As Jesus initiated that authority of a powerful heavenly government upon the original apostles, He will again initiate that prior to His coming. It will be a refined apostolic model, — nothing like the apostolic models that we have been accustomed to. As it humbly began with the twelve back then, so will it humbly begin with the scattered now, and the numbers of the scattered are huge! God is now calling for the gathering of those who are scattered. He is about to set His plan in motion. It's the manger experience all over again, — the obscure coming from that hidden place, having all the permissions to flex the Kingdom.

Prophetic Journey

Many of this remnant have been defined individually during their desert times, and many may not even know that they have been shaped for a time such as this. Now He is about to define them corporately as they converge . He is going to take what seemed dysfunctional and turn it into a model as originally intended by heaven, from something scattered to something gathered. It will be an Ekklesia moment fanned into an Ekklesia movement, from something dysfunctional to something designed to highly function once again. As He breathed upon the original apostolic model, releasing them into the fire of the Holy Spirit, so is He personally going to breathe upon us today, — those of us who are truly His! He will restore what was lost and repair what was broken. It will be a time of refreshing as it all comes into his alignment. Only those who truly know His voice will come into alignment.

The written word itself will once again be released with amazing life, and the prophetic word will once again be released with an amazing level of intel as it strikes to the core. The religious camp will no longer have its way with this remnant. What He is about to do is new! He is creating a level playing field and all have a part to play when it comes to this release. The family is about to be aligned and it is about to expand. Any models from our past season will not work with this coming expansion. God is about to do a new thing. The reason why it is new is because we have never experienced anything like it in our time. This thing called new was really the original plan back in the day, — back when He, the Lord, had his original twelve. As that small gathering walked with an amazing revelation of Jesus back then, so are we are about to walk into an amazing revelation of Jesus today, — more than ever as He engages deeper with us in this new season.

As this apostolic alignment kicks into place with the already carved out heavenly alignment, the family will drastically expand. As it moves down the harvest field as a unified team with amazing five-fold power, this family will claim all its territory, never losing ground like the last season we just walked out of. We may not have all the answers to the many questions about this unfolding season, and we may not have all the correct language to speak as to where it all seems to be heading, but the one thing we do know is that if we gather, His breath will come upon us and reignite the embers into a powerful alignment. So as you move in this direction of Ekklesia, ask God to breathe upon your gatherings and you will receive, like back in the day, that upper room experience, — for that part of our amazing history has never changed!

8 - 2 The Forces that Oppose Ekklesia

What I saw in a vision was one of the many opposing forces that will come against this season of the unleashed Ekklesia. As a matter of fact, these forces are already pounding at the front door! What I saw were dogs coming against this present movement, friendly dogs, — a picture of friendly fire. God's special forces having gone rogue, once trained by the Lord, were now twisting prophetic Intel and using it against their own, applying it directly against the five-fold that God plans to unleash. These dogs, having the leviathan art of twisting prophetic intel, have the ability to deceive many. Once they have blinded their opponents through rogue intel, they will then start to build alliances as they head towards the steering wheel. The target for these dogs is to redirect any serious movement that God is about to unleash, — redirecting those movements through the power of the false prophetic, while at the same time slipping themselves into some form of leadership.

In many cases, these religious rogue leaders have convinced themselves that they are now walking in the order of the Kingdom. Like the order of Saul, they are convinced that they are the real deal. Even the seeming presence of God that is upon them is a counterfeit. While they self proclaim to be prophets in one hand, they are not shy to pump out just as many apostles with the other! Convinced they are building the Kingdom of God, they focus on building their alliances. As these friendlies make their way into the camp, their sole plan is to redirect the seasons and the times that God has for us. Once out of sync, the religious spirit takes over. For most of us, we'd never notice the shift until the whole thing starts freefalling over the cliff. By that time their job is done!

This model, cloaked as the real deal, is actually a powerful form of witchcraft. They come as special ops, — veterans trained by the Lord, walking in humility, honor and forgiveness. But it's all a counterfeit! It's a humility that's false, and all they really honor is themselves, and the forgiveness they walk in is all packaged in manipulation. It is this present form of forgiveness that is being used to draw people into the middle. Once in the middle, they completely drag them over while manipulating their heart and mind, all executed through the false prophetic. Where the Intel on these special ops have gone rogue, is that they are using their kingdom training and their prophetic language to position themselves somewhere in the loop of all the excitement. First they stir up the pot, and then they come in as the ones with all the answers, all packaged in a false humility wrapped in a warped form of forgiveness, while seeking honor. That whole process is a dog-and-pony show being used to divide and conquer!

Their plan is to eventually get to the top of the food chain, — or as close as they can, allowing them to have some level of influence over any movement. But the real demonic plot behind it all is that these rogues are being used as pawns to pollute the waters that God is breaking forth, to take those fresh springs of the Lord and mix it with their dirty water. We need to guard the wells! These well meaning false prophetic rogues walk in a high level form of witchcraft, giving them the ability to walk in the heart of both camps. You rarely see a satanist walk in the heart of both camps, but these rogues will not hesitate! Somewhere in the personal character refinement process, these rogues have decided to jump ship. God desires to create a movement where the whole team goes down the field together, a unified five-fold remnant moving as one. These rogue ops are being used to manipulate movement back into an autocratic system, all for the sake of control. Like I said, this force is subtle, and it packs a powerful form of witchcraft, and the devious plot behind it all is to redirect any movement that God is releasing by polluting the waters. To redirect is to minimize the serious power that God intends to unleash. We need to stand with great discernment and guard the wells, — we need to guard the wells that God is about to release!

“I know that after I leave, savage wolves (dogs of war) will come in among you and will not spare the flock. For I know this, that after my departure; shall grievous wolves enter in among you; false teachers, comparable to wolves, crafty and cunning, greedy, covetous, very grievous and troublesome, enter into gatherings as unawares, and setting themselves up as preachers, prophets and apostles, without being called or sent by God: not sparing the flock; fleecing it instead of feeding it, and under religious pretenses, devouring and draining men and women; having little compassion upon their souls, poisoning them with prophetic errors and heresies, subverting the faith, bringing ruin and destruction.” (Acts 20:29, 30)

8 - 3 What Was! What Is! What will Be!

The past has a way of repeating itself, and here we are once again! A group that came out of exile to rebuild the temple; that’s what God wanted, and that's what was being prophesied. Zacharias, whom we've all come to know very well, was there when the job was completed. As a priest, he now executed his duties in the revived, renewed and restored temple.

In the meantime, his son John was nowhere to be found. That would be his son known as John the Baptist! John decided to hang out in the wilderness with all the locusts and honey! He decided that he was going to blaze his own trail. As Zacharias was out doing his priestly duties I’m sure the boys who hung around Zach were probably wondering what the deal was with regards to his son. Why was Zach not dragging his son out and aligning him up for temple duties.

The bizarre thing is that God ordained Zacharias to be a priest, to help minister in the temple, taking his rightful time slots in the holy of holies. His son, around the same time, was also ordained to play his part. Obviously the call was a little different than his dad as he found himself as one crying out in the wilderness. As Zach played his part in the sacrificing of the lamb, John was playing his part as one being a voice for the coming Lamb. If both were called, and both were ordained, then, what we have here is a major time of transition, — a shift for a movement where life as we know it, will not be the same!

The “what was” and the “what is” are both heading towards the “what will be”. The “what was” in Zacharias’ time was needed to give reference to the “what is” in John’s time. The “what was” is about to manifest into the “what is”. Zacharias’ movement was a stepping-stone for the movement that John is about to walk in! The “what will be” that follows is God being manifested in the flesh! The Lamb of God manifested!

Well today, prophetically, we are in the middle of another major historical shift! In the last five, ten, fifteen to twenty years, there has been a huge shift. It was during this period that up to 80% of the church left the building, leaving the walls behind. Like John the Baptist, they all went into the wilderness. You see, it’s in the wilderness that the Spirit of Elijah has a chance of being established in one’s life. As it consumed John in his time, so will it consume this group during this present time, and this group is a gathering that is being shaped for a time such as this.

In our lifetime, God has once again established the “what was” and the “what is” for the “what will be”. We are about to walk into the apostolic age, the ministry of the five-fold as Jesus intended. We are once again embarking into a church without walls, both in the natural and in the spiritual. It really comes down to Jesus being in me, the hope of His glory, — especially when we are about to enter extreme times of tribulation, for in a very short time the world, as we know it, will not be the same.

Destinies are about to be released! The dysfunction in the days of the “what was”, made it impossible to release the destinies in this massive group. God took the whole lot and steered them into the wilderness, and this massive group is about to come out of the wilderness. Tribulation will bring these ones to the forefront. They are going to be a motley looking bunch of Bravehearts, nothing like the “what was”. They will have the fire of Elijah upon them as they burn up the harvest fields! God’s desire is that the “what was” now honor the “what is” as these Bravehearts begin to move forward, and the “what is” will honor the “what was” as they search for their spiritual fathers and mothers. In this time frame, the honoring of one another is important.

The new model of the “what is”, is a whole lot different than the “what was”. The last movement was “pastoral”, this new movement is “apostolic” shrouded with an amazing presence of the “prophetic”. Why? Well when movement moves outside the walls, it needs to hear the prophetic voice of God. With that the Apostolic, the prophetic, the evangelistic, the pastoral and all the teaching will now walk in their proper alignment. They can now move down the harvest field as the Ekklesia team as Jesus originally intended.

We are in a very critical time and God has designed a group that will now hear and move outside the walls, a team that will honor one another, — a team that will serve one another!

8 - 4 The Line Has Been Drawn

I have found myself in a city that seems to be one of many that are all going through some type of spiritual upheaval. The very heart of this city has been raked over and the big culprit seems to have that leviathan smell to it. What started out years ago as a good work in the making ended up going sideways by those who were influenced by two demonic spirits: leviathan and that sidekick jezebel. The twisting and distortion of words, and plans of leviathan, combined with the schmoozing and enticements of jezebel, makes for an ugly demonic package that was and is very deceptive and convincing on many levels. So much so that those who have been blindsided by her have found themselves operating under a false identity that has totally derailed them from any true identity, the result being a trail of destruction with a spiritual body count that is still being racked up to this day! But heaven has strategically earmarked certain cities as places of refuge. God's intent for this city was always to stake it as a major eagles nest, but now it will have a different feel and look to it as it starts to manifest in an ekklesia model!

We are about to see the Lord draw a line in the sand – two of them to be exact. The first line is both angelic and prophetic as He exposes the adversary's next assault against God's Kingdom and His people, for this next assault will be much like those of the past. Coming with a mask of piety and false humility, this false prophetic will speak with some level of truth, but just enough truth to set the hook and captivate all whom it desires, manipulating the air all around. This adversary will use a counterfeit conviction to convince many that his ways are influenced by heaven, when in fact those ways are all about control, position, manipulation and self-preservation. The adversary will steal as much territory as possible elevating himself as the very wisdom of God. Accountability is not even on his radar and will ultimately sacrifice someone else to preserve his image. The adversary's weapon of choice, the tongue, will continually counter the rhema of God. Those under its influence proclaim to be the 'meat', and the 'favoured ones' of a 'caldron' that was never theirs! As this assault is being exposed, ekklesia will put some serious boots to the ground, and with it God has both a warning and a promise to His people:

Ezekiel Chapter 11

And the Lord said, "Son of man, these are the men who say, 'this city is the caldron, and we are the meat.' "

Therefore says the Lord, "I will take them out and give them over to the hands of foreigners, and they shall fall by the sword. And they shall know that I am the Lord. This city shall not be their pot, and they shall not be the meat inside it. I will gather the peoples whom they have scattered, and I will give them land, I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them and give them a heart of flesh so that they may walk in my statutes and keep my judgments. They shall be my people, and I will be their God."

This is the second line in the sand: to rescue those who have been deceived by the adversary but truly desire to follow the Lord. Together, with the remnant that God has gathered, they will walk through the religiousness of it all and tap into the fresh well that is now before them. Working as a team they will grow in true character and leaving behind all that is false they will enter into all that has been prophesied. Walking in one accord, leaving behind all that is selfish and full of ambition, they will truly love one another. They will walk in a true humility, a humility that will give them a willingness to really serve and esteem one another, where jealousy is carved out of the camp! The goal of this movement is to bring the body of Christ into a true Ekklesia.

8 - 5 True Shepherds under Ekklesia

Jude spoke of those shepherds who fed themselves and ignored the flock. He states how they spoke evil of what they do not know; and whatever they do know, like brute beasts, they corrupt for themselves. How they run greedily for profit. During our (agapao) love feasts, serving (poimaino), they would tend only to themselves, not the flock.

He describes them as clouds without water, carried about by the winds; late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots, as they tend to their bosko feast. Other than these two verses where Jesus was speaking to Peter about feeding his lambs and sheep in a bosko fashion, the other usage of bosko was in the context of the slopping of hogs! Boskoing was the position the Prodigal son found himself in, prior to coming to his senses.

Now, poimaino is what God calls us to do as His shepherds. It involves more than just pushing the feed off the back of a truck. It involves tending to them and their needs with personalized care. It's a life of giving, not taking. The giving of yourself without restraint or concern for your own needs. This tender care of a poimaino shepherding seems to be a rare model in our western culture. People today are gathered into the shed for their Sunday feeding, and any quality time and personal attention needed from the shepherd, well that may not happen, and when the time is up, then comes the bill.

There are other verses that shed light on the Greek word poimaino, defining the difference between the bosko approach of feeding, and the tender care of poimaino. It says, “to be on guard for yourselves and for all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd (poimaino) the bride of Christ which he purchased with his own blood.” (Acts 20:28). “Shepherd (poimaino) the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not for sordid gain, but with eagerness.” (1 Peter 5:2). “For the Lamb in the center of the throne shall be their shepherd (poimaino), and shall guide them to springs of the water of life; and God shall wipe every tear from their eyes.” (Revelation 7:17). Have you ever asked yourself where their tears came from? As we can all see, poimaino is what Jesus does to and for us as His flock. Jesus asked Peter three times about love!

Paraphrased - “Do you agapao love me? I agapao you! Are you willing to deny all of your self-interests and love me more than these, your boat, your nets, and even the great catch you just received? Peter, phileo love is not enough to be a true shepherd of my sheep. You said you would never deny me, but I am asking you to deny yourself! You must tend my sheep with agapao love as I have loved you. Your life is no longer your own. You can no longer address yourself in what you like, nor step out and walk in the power of your old nature. You must be so shrouded by my love that you cannot help but lay down your life for my flock and love them like I do. Brotherly love is not enough. It will fail you in the work that I am calling you into. You must agapao me and my flock and become that servant, not seeking your own interests, but the interests of others. You must die to selfish gain. Your old man will not make the grade to where I am leading you. You who would be great — are you ready to be that servant or are you still girding up yourselves, going and leading the flock where you want to go? If so, take note, The Lord does not take presumptuous ways with his sheep lightly.”*

We need to be asking our own hearts if we really do agapao love our Lord, for if we do, it will show in the way we treat His sheep. In Jesus' dealings with Simon Peter we see the making of a true shepherd. Contrary to popular opinion, true shepherds are not made in the classroom. Neither do men ordain them. It is God who calls them and they are usually birthed in crisis. Such was the case with Simon Peter. The name Peter is a prophetic name, descriptive of God's calling and destiny for Simon. When Andrew introduced his brother, Jesus looked beyond the flesh and blood Simon, beyond the motley fisherman with his rough exterior and his rash and sometimes thoughtless behavior, to a calling and destiny that only He could see. Only He could see Peter in Simon. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called "Cephas" which is by interpretation, Peter! John 1:41-42 This name, Peter, means a rock, and denotes sureness and steadfastness. We need not read too far in the gospel narrative to discover that Simon was anything but sure and steadfast. How was it that this fisherman would become a rock? It all began with a great crisis. In Luke 22 Jesus warned Simon of this crisis. In passing through this God-ordained stripping, Simon would come to see the ineffectual ways of attempting to follow Jesus in the strength of his own soul. In what must have been perceived as a complete failure, Simon would learn to have no confidence in his flesh. He would learn to distrust his own resolve and tenacity. He would be converted from one life-source to another, from his natural strength, into the life of Jesus. Simon obviously loved the Lord, but little did Simon know that just before him was a testing, — a sifting that would shake him to the core of his being. Things looked dismal, for he had not only failed to lay down his life for Jesus but he also denied Jesus three times, in order to save it. Simon had been winnowed and the chaff of self-confidence and self-reliance had been blown away. It was imperative that Simon's faith in his natural strength, resolve and abilities should fail him. Simon, in his own strength, could not become that much-needed shepherd. This molding of Simon represents a vivid picture of how Jesus, even today, continues to mold those whom He has called, for in these days of the rising Ekklesia, true shepherds are needed for a time such as this.

8 - 6 Transformation

At one time we walked in a powerful model of the written word. Then, to increase that forward momentum, God added elements of the prophetic to the written model. As God breathed upon that movement, the adversary decided to do a little breathing of his own. With that bad breath carving its inroads, the true prophetic language was now being man-handled by a counterfeit. This distorted prophetic language was specifically targeted to misdirect the apostolic ministry away from God's original intentions and purposes. Instead of cultivating a Kingdom here on earth like the one above, it manipulated a counterfeit language fueled by prosperity, self-preservation and self-promotion . . . all heavyweights for the present distortion.

This counterfeit prophetic voice back in the day was fanned by two powerful forces: that sidwinding spirit called Leviathan and its well-known sidekick Jezebel. These two drama queens have a reputation of conquered kingdoms, taking as many captives as possible. Now having entrenched themselves within this counterfeit prophetic voice, these powerful forces now have the ability to twist any prophetic word before it actually comes down the pipe. The goal for this distortion was to shower any true forward movement with a gospel where money and numbers have positioned themselves on the top of the food chain. This counterfeit prophetic voice with its watered-down gospel has all but silenced the true prophetic voice. The original model of apostolic ministry included a covering for the lambs. But this counterfeit prophetic voice, this misalignment of the prophetic gifting has left the doors to the sheep pens wide open. Those who were part of this distorted movement, who claimed to be the apostles of the many propped up apostolic centers, were globetrotting around the world, taking the very covering that was needed for those lambs. These winded ones completely misrepresented the five-fold apostolic ministry as modeled in the book of Acts. Those who pursued their global invitations, promoting their latest revelations, prophesying all over creation, have silenced the true prophetic voice that once dwelt in the midst of these lambs. What was meant to be a powerful gathering of believers ended up as a massive scattering as the leviathan spirit had its way with those uncovered lambs.

Many of the lambs back home, those uncovered, and unprotected . . . were then led into the wilderness. God, Himself, as the good Shepherd took this massive group to that place where lambs would be transformed into powerful lions. He will now be their covering, and their shelter, for He is about to define these ones as He trains them in the wilderness. These lambs will embrace a wisdom from God to which they have not been accustomed to until now. God's plan is that they become as wise as serpents and gentle as doves. They will learn how to survive without getting sidelined. They will learn how to discern the counterfeit and defeat the cunning devices of the adversary as he tries to stand before them in all its false glory. In the end, these lambs turned lions, will walk in a level of Kingdom understanding such as demonstrated by Jesus Himself.

Some of these lambs will walk out of the wilderness with the Judah anointing. They will have the lion-like nature of God being bold in battle, having great authority with the ability to rid all fear and anxiety in the camp. Others will emerge with the Issachar anointing. These ones will be watchful and attentive as they truly understand the times and the seasons in which they presently live. They will have the ability to tap into God's plans. Other lambs will possess the Zebulun anointing. These will have an amazing revelation of Jesus. They will know how to access the inheritance for all who are part of this unfolding season. The Word of the Lord is upon them as they scribe out end time assignments. The glory of the house will reside with these ones. An amazing presence of God will be upon these anointed ones! The uncovered have been covered. These lambs will come forth as lions! As this remnant comes out of the desert, the prophetic ministry will now function as originally intended. Nothing will be lost! Heaven and earth will now move as one!

8 - 7 The Kingdom is Seriously Upon Us!

We are not only in a season where the powers of the age are at hand, but we are also at the beginning stages for the multiple-powers of the age to completely manifest. Eyes have not seen, nor ears heard, nor has man even imagined what God has planned for those that love him, for the manifestation of the Kingdom is seriously upon us once again and we need to start walking at this level!

According to heaven, we are at the tail end, and the later glory of His house will be greater than the former house! We are going to be the catalyst for the final move of God. How blessed it is for us who are called to be a part of these last days. God's purpose for us is that we are not only born for a time such as this, but that we become active participants in the final display of His glory! We are at that final resting place where we need to preach the gospel and let it follow with healing the sick. The Kingdom of God should not only preached in word, but should follow with the power to heal and the power to restore, for this is our banqueting table of a power that is available unto our salvation! It really is the continuation of the book of Acts. It is this very world within a world that Jesus demonstrated, He being the doorway of a hidden Kingdom that is about to unleash on many levels during these last days.

When Jesus released the original Ekklesia, He told us to preach the gospel of the Kingdom, and heal the sick! For us, that flaming lion of Judah that has been prophesied, is about to kick a few doors wide open; lining up what looks like the lost language of Ekklesia, with the fivefold as originally intended, the latter being greater than the former! It will be the perfect storm and we are invited into the action! It will be a double anointing and a double portion for the nameless, faceless and the selfless! The Holy Spirit will come like a tempest and those rushing winds will come from the North, South, East and West with a powerful message of salvation backed by a powerful Kingdom! Your desert training for all these years has shaped you for a time such as this, and if you don't step into the job that you have been trained for, God will raise someone else to handle the job. So connect with that remnant wherever He directs you and flow with the Ekklesia that He surrounds you with. You have been chosen and you have a job! — It's time to engage!

This remnant, this gathering, was never meant to be that big mystery, but for most that's exactly what it's become! But as for that mysterious bride, — they have always prepared their time with the Lamb of God, and that is where the mystery lies. It is these very ones that have sat around his campfire that He will make known the mysteries of the Kingdom. He is preparing His fires for these last days and He has prepared himself a bride, forged in the fires of the Holy Spirit, ready to engage with the upcoming events. They have prepared themselves to be doing only what the Father is doing. Nothing more, nothing less! For the gathering that He is now re-establishing, He will now feed this remnant the mysteries of the Kingdom that they may understand the hidden things. The scrolls will be opened and that is a given! Our purpose, our call, and our position, in these last days, and for those who are willing, is to receive from the angelic host who are waiting to unfold Kingdom events upon a prepared remnant, — a gathering who have been assigned to unleash the Kingdom that is many times greater than the book of Acts, — men and angels working together!

Angels are going to back these assignments that are upon those scrolls, and He has prepared our feet to walk in the daily manna that is needed to walk out these scrolls. Angels have been prepared to walk out the ways of God, and they have aligned themselves with us! Now the Lord stands at the door and knocks with marching orders for you. So have you prepared yourself? For the Kingdom is about to be unleashed like never before, creating paradigm shifts, rattling cultures with signs and wonders! It will be a powerful time, and this gathering, this bride, the redeemed of the Lord, will also become a refuge, a city not forsaken! It will be a safe haven and she will be sought out! For when you are filled with His glory you will be sought out! Those coming out from the world and those coming out of the wilderness will search her out. This remnant will become a refuge for many! So when you have personally lined yourself up, and corporately tweaked yourself in accordance to the Kingdom of God, they will come and you will be sought out! A wall of fire will surround those habitations. The presence of angels along with the hidden manna will be present, for He is establishing your daily intake! The well is full and fear will be removed. There will be incredible love in the camp, and power will cause the weak to be strong. No weapon formed against them will prosper, and they will walk in their supernatural abilities that have been given unto them. Our DNA will change more into the Lord's DNA, and He will renew our strength like an eagle so that we may soar above all those challenging circumstances.

This habitation, this dwelling place, will be constantly on the move as it goes from glory to glory, for this is a movement that is Holy Spirit led and angelically protected. Our God is on the move and the baton is being passed to the last runner so that His Bride may arise! This last runner needs to be led by the ark of His presence with the ability to connect with Jesus on many levels. This last day ministry needs to be a Kingdom-based ministry as Jesus defined it, and it needs to be one of honor. We truly need to honor one another and watch out for our brothers and sisters! We need to be doing the Father's business the Father's way! Where we are going is a whole new place, as we have never walked this way before, — never, for He is doing a whole new thing in our midst! As we walk in alignment with the Kingdom of heaven, He will guide us, He will guard us, and He will watch over us as His Bride begins to arise during this incredible season!

8 - 8 Jesus Prays for Ekklesia – John 17:1-26

“Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son also may glorify You, as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as You have given Him. And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. I have glorified You on the earth. I have finished the work which You have given Me to do. And now, O Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world was.

I have manifested Your name to the men whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. Now they have known that all things which You have given Me are from You. For I have given to them the words which You have given Me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came forth from You; and they have believed that You sent Me.

I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours. And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I am glorified in them. Now I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep through Your name those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. Those whom You gave Me I have kept; and none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. But now I come to You, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them Your word; and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth. As You sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth.

I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

Father, I desire that they also whom You gave Me may be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which You have given Me; for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father! The world has not known You, but I have known You; and these have known that You sent Me. And I have declared to them Your name, and will declare it, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”
